Welcome Celebration Honoring Paul Msiza, President, Baptist World Alliance

Birmingham area Baptist ministers are invited to a Welcome Celebration on Monday morning, February 24, 2020. The Welcome Celebration honors Dr. Paul Msiza, pastor of the Peniel-Salem Baptist Church in Pretoria, South Africa, and president of the Baptist World Alliance.

Dr. Msiza is the former General Secretary of the Baptist Convention of South Africa and served as President of the All African Baptist Fellowship. For the past five years he has led the Baptist World Alliance which includes 239 member bodies from 125 nations.

“Samford University is honored to host such a distinguished world Baptist leader as Dr. Paul Msiza,” said Dr. Andrew Westmoreland, President of Samford University. “And we are honored to share him with Baptist ministers from the Birmingham area through this Welcome Celebration.”

Dr. Msiza is visiting Samford to lead in campus worship on Tuesday, February 25, and to share the South African experience in a seminar entitled “Apartheid, Forgiveness and Reconciliation.”

The Welcome Celebration will include a reception for Dr. Msiza beginning at 10:00 a.m. A shared time of worship will follow at 11:00 a.m. in which Msiza will speak followed by a time of questions and answers about Baptist life around the world. He has traveled extensively encouraging Baptists in many nations during his tenure as BWA president.

A complimentary lunch provided by Samford will conclude the event. The Welcome Celebration will be held in the Regions Room of Cooney Hall, Samford’s newest building which houses the Brock School of Business. Reservations may be made at <https://www.eventbrite.com/o/samford-university-5951052795>
